

Kit's Tale

A Fox Tucson Theatre Coloring Book

Kit's Tale

A Fox Tucson Theatre Coloring Book

Kit looks forward to many adventures with his friend:

Written by Jordan Wiley-Hill and Bob Holl
Illustrated by Nora Voutas

Kit the Fox character created by Joel Valdez

All rights reserved. Fox Tucson Theatre Foundation, Tucson, AZ

Meet the Fox family. There is Papa Fox, Mama Fox, and little Kit Fox.

The Fox family needed some shade in the hot desert.

One day they came upon an old theatre. A long time ago kids went there to watch shows and movies.

Kit Fox found a way into the theatre. "What a good place for us to live," he thought. So he brought his family inside.

They found a perfect hiding place under the old stage.

One day people came into the building. They were going to make the old theatre beautiful again.

During the work someone discovered the Fox family under the stage. The workers did not want to destroy their home.

So the workers decided to give the Fox family an even nicer place to live in the theatre.

When it came time to open the new theatre, there was a big celebration. But the sign was covered up.

Then they uncovered the sign to share the name of the new theatre. It was called the Fox Theatre. Kit couldn't believe his eyes!

At the first family show in the new theatre, happy kids filled the seats. Front and center was Kit the Fox, in a special seat just for him.

Kit's Tale

A Fox Tucson Theatre Coloring Book

Want to share your coloring art with the world and win big? Send us your favorite picture, colored in by you, and you'll be entered into a special art competition in which you could win great Fox Tucson Theatre prizes!

Just email an image of your art to Kit@foxtucson.com or send it by mail to Kit at PO Box 1008, Tucson, AZ 85702. Include name, contact information, and age of the artist.

Note: Submitting your artwork gives the Fox Tucson Theatre permission to use the image for promotional purposes.

Special thanks to Marta and Bob Holl for making this coloring book possible!

Book illustration and design donated by
Learning A-Z, Tucson, AZ

Proudly printed and donated by

